MASSACHUSETTS IS HOME TO A DIVERSE ARRAY OF COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES, MANY OF THEM WORLD-RENOWNED. Over 400,000 students attend one of our 117 colleges and universities. Whether you are interested in art history or electrical engineering, you will find a college in Massachusetts that suits you perfectly. From quaint rural college campuses to sophisticated urban universities, there is something here for everyone.

unities

Massachusetts is really one big campus because of the abundance of cultural, historic, and natural resources.

Historic monuments, buildings and museums celebrate this heritage while at the same time coexisting with modern structures and cutting-edge technology.

You will find endless opportunity for career exploration in Massachusetts, whether assisting with groundbreaking biomedical research, interning at one of the nation's top management consulting firms or using the latest education theory to help prepare local students for college. The dynamic combination of students, schools and businesses in Massachusetts is the force behind the Commonwealth's impressive record of growth and innovation. The educational and personal experiences you will have in Massachusetts are truly limitless and will properly prepare you for life after graduation.

STUDENTS IN MASSACHUSETTS LEARN AND GROW INSIDE
AS WELL AS OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM.

Every region in the Commonwealth has a unique treasure to discover. Some of the finest museums in the world are located here, including the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum and the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library. Massachusetts' full array of cultural attractions include national and local theatre productions, outdoor concerts, art shows, and symphonies at Boston's beautiful Symphony Hall. While you are in Massachusetts, sample the eclectic collection of restaurants with cuisine from every part of the world. If you are a spectator sports fan, Massachusetts has a lot to offer. No matter which sport you choose, you will always find enthusiastic and loyal fans at the game. We are home to five professional sports teams: the Red Sox, the Celtics, the Bruins, the Patriots and the New England Revolution. Fenway Park, the home of the Red Sox, is one of the oldest and most intimate baseball stadiums in the United States. Springfield is the birthplace of basketball and home to the Basketball Hall of Fame. Many international sporting events also take place in Boston including the Boston Marathon and the Head of the Charles Regatta.

Bridgewater, Massachusetts is home to the Hall of Black Achievement which celebrates the many successes of African Americans.

MASSACHUSETTS' FOUR SEASONS ALLOW FOR A WIDE RANGE OF RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES AND ADVENTURES.

Fall foliage is legendary, drawing visitors from all corners of the globe. The explosion of autumn color paints an impressive backdrop for hiking in the Berkshires, or biking excursions through quaint New England villages. When the cold and snowy New England winter arrives, skating, sledding, cross-country and downhill skiing draw students out into the fresh winter air. Well-known ski resorts in New Hampshire, Vermont, and Maine are all within easy reach. Spring is a great season to go on a whale watch or visit some of the state's historic whaling villages, such as New Bedford or Gloucester. Additionally, beautiful spring flowers start to bloom in Boston's Public Garden, one of the nation's first public parks. Summer is the best time to explore the beaches of Cape Cod or the picturesque islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket. With more than 300 miles of sandy beaches, Cape Cod is a favorite summertime destination for students who enjoy sailing, windsurfing, water skiing and swimming.

Massachusetts has an excellent mix of old and new, sophisticated and quaint, history and novelty. As native Massachusetts residents will attest, you will never find yourself bored and you will never want to leave. Amazing new adventures are at your fingertips every day and in every part of Massachusetts. Unique opportunities await you, so come discover Massachusetts!

TIPS ON APPLYING FOR ADMISSION AND FINANCIAL AID

Begin the admission process as early as possible by reading and evaluating college and application information for all of the institutions that you are interested in. Consult with the admissions office to learn more about the admission process and admission deadlines.

Completed applications may include the following:

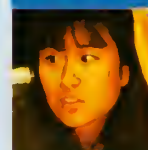

- 🍏 Completed admission application form
- 🍏 High school transcripts
- 🍏 Teacher recommendations or references
- 🍏 Standardized test scores (SAT I, SAT II, ACT, TOEFL)
- 🍏 Personal essay, if required

Always apply for admission and financial aid at the same time. Do not wait until you are accepted to apply for financial aid. If you wait, you may miss out on financial aid. Check with each college to make sure that you have completed their admissions requirements.

Financial aid applications may include the following:

- 🍏 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA); available at guidance office or at www.fafsa.ed.gov (complete 4-6 weeks before a school's priority deadline)
- 🍏 College Scholarship Service PROFILE® Form; available at guidance offices or www.collegeboard.org (complete 4-6 weeks before a school's priority deadline)
- 🍏 Institutional Financial Aid Application
- 🍏 Signed copies of previous year's federal tax returns (both student's and parents')
- 🍏 Business/Farm Supplemental Information
- 🍏 Divorced/Separated Parent Information
- 🍏 Any other information/clarification requested by the Financial Aid Office

The financial aid application requirements and deadlines vary from college to college. It is important to have all application materials in by the priority deadline or you risk not receiving aid you may have been otherwise eligible for. Check with every college to determine what is required and promptly mail the appropriate information to them. Make sure you put your name and social security number on all documents that are sent to the college. Call to verify that all information has been received.

Your school's financial aid office will determine how much financial aid you are eligible for by reviewing your financial aid application materials. They calculate your "family contribution" and subtract that figure from the annual cost of the college (usually includes tuition, fees, room and board, books and miscellaneous expenses). What remains is your "financial need" which they seek to fill with federal, state, and institutional loans, grants, scholarships, and work programs.

- Loans are funds borrowed in the student's name, often repaid after the student graduates or leaves school.
- Grants are monies that do not have to be repaid.
- Scholarships, which do not have to be repaid, are usually awarded to students who show academic merit or some other talent.
- Work programs enable students to obtain employment on campus.

- Merit based awards are not awarded based on financial need; they are awarded by the college to students who have unique talents or have excelled academically.

You should apply for private scholarships through your high school, civic organizations, public libraries and the Internet. You should never pay for a scholarship search as there are numerous no-cost services available. If you receive a private scholarship from a source other than your college, you must notify your financial aid administrator as soon as possible. Private scholarships may reduce your eligibility for other financial aid. Contact your financial aid administrator for policies on private scholarships.

Finally, you must apply for need-based financial aid every year. Contact your financial aid office for application and deadline information.

THE MEFA LOAN

Families of students studying at participating Massachusetts colleges and universities may also be eligible for the MEFA Loan, one of the lowest cost college loans available in the United States. The MEFA Loan allows families to borrow the full cost of their education (less any financial aid they receive) and repay that amount over fifteen years. For more information, call 1-800-449-MEFA or visit our Web site at www.mefa.org.

September

- 🍏 Utilize the UWho tool at www.mefa.org to search for colleges that might suit you.
- 🍏 Attend college fairs and collect information about colleges.
- 🍏 Start researching and applying for private scholarships at your high school, area clubs and organizations, your public library, or on-line at www.finaid.org or www.fastweb.com.

October/November

- 🍏 Take SAT I and/or SAT II exams.
- 🍏 Visit the colleges that you're interested in.
- 🍏 Prepare admissions applications.
- 🍏 Ask appropriate people to write references for you.
- 🍏 Obtain, complete and mail the PROFILE® Registration Form or complete on-line at www.collegeboard.org.
- 🍏 Obtain financial aid application materials from the colleges you are applying to. Pay careful attention to application procedures and deadlines!
- 🍏 Continue searching for private scholarships.

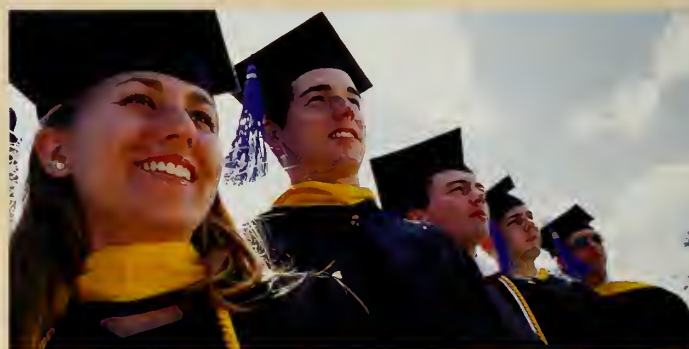

December

- 🍏 Continue to complete your admissions applications.
- 🍏 Schedule personal interviews at colleges, if required.
- 🍏 Attend college fairs and financial aid information nights (go to www.mefa.org for financial aid nights offered by MEFA).

January

- 🍏 Prepare and mail the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or complete at www.fafsa.ed.gov (cannot be completed until January 1). Use estimates if previous year's taxes are not complete.
- 🍏 Prepare and mail the PROFILE® application or complete it at www.collegeboard.org.
- 🍏 Contact college financial aid offices to determine what materials are required to complete financial aid applications. Keep track of each school's requirements and keep copies of what you've sent.
- 🍏 Promptly send in any information that is requested by the college including federal tax returns (get them done early!). Make sure the student's name and social security number are on every document.
- 🍏 Be aware of college financial aid and admissions application deadlines. The earlier you apply the better.

February

- 🍏 Send in signed complete copies of parents' and student's federal income tax returns to schools, if required.
- 🍏 Review and correct your Student Aid Report (SAR).
- 🍏 Promptly respond to requests for information by colleges.
- 🍏 Call schools to make sure your financial aid and admission applications are complete.

March

- 🍏 Watch mail for college acceptance letters and offers of financial aid.
- 🍏 Contact your state higher education agency about state aid programs available.
- 🍏 Attend open house events and overnight visits at your preferred colleges.

April

- 🍏 Review and compare financial aid awards.
- 🍏 Contact the college's financial aid office to make sure nothing else is needed to complete your financial aid file.
- 🍏 Discuss financing options with the college's financial aid office.

May

- 🍏 Pay required deposits for enrollment and/or residence hall by May 1.
- 🍏 Decide on how you'll finance your education.
- 🍏 Apply for your preferred financing choice.
- 🍏 Check out www.mefa.org for information about the MEFA Loan program.
- 🍏 File the Massachusetts State Scholarship application (MA residents deadline May 1).

June/July/August

- 🍏 Respond promptly to any requests for information from your college.
- 🍏 Pay fall semester tuition bill.
- 🍏 Request a final high school transcript be sent to your college.
- 🍏 Attend orientation.
- 🍏 Enjoy your summer!

QUICK REFERENCE TO DEGREE PROGRAMS

Massachusetts is home to nearly half the colleges in New England, and with more than 117 colleges and universities throughout the state, every student can find the right college to meet their needs.

The following matrix lists the programs at the 85 colleges and universities providing the MEFA Loan. This matrix will help you find the college or university that is right for you. Follow these three easy steps and experience how much more Massachusetts has to offer.

1 Choose one or two categories that are important to you. For example: a favorite major, the college size, or tuition cost.

2 Use the matrix to find the colleges that offer these choices. Be sure to notice if the major is offered at the undergraduate or graduate level.

3 Turn to the profile section, found on pages 18 through 28, and learn more about the colleges of your choice.

For a complete listing, and to request brochures from the colleges of your choice, visit our Web site at www.mefa.org.
